

A revolutionary world-class farmer owned and controlled milk-processing facility, located in Westbury, Wiltshire. It will become Britain's largest dairy processing plant accounting for 5% of the UK output and 1% of the world's output of skimmed milk powder. Design and construction period 82 weeks.

Project Manager/Quantity Surveyor:
Appleyard & Trew LLP

Architect:
Shepherd Construction

Approximate Value:
£45 million

Procurement:
Design & Build