

Greenheys was a new build mixed development of 65nr new dwellings (24nr for rent, 28nr for shared ownership, 13nr for sale). The development was a mixture of family housing and flats and included an adopted public square with artwork features. The new square has been named in honour of the local connection with the author Elizabeth Gaskell to mark the 200th anniversary of her birth in 2010.

Winner of the 'Best Residential Development', North West Award at the RICS Awards.
